

Duxbury Clipper
p. 17
1-7-2015

Kenneth F. Roveto

Kenneth F. Roveto, of Duxbury, passed away Dec. 29, 2014. Born Oct. 24, 1928 in Roslindale. He was the husband of Irene Felddegen Roveto, son of Joseph P. and Grace (Ferarra) Roveto, brother of Joseph Roveto Jr., father of Christopher Roveto of Albuquerque, NM and Lori Aldrich and Peter Roveto of Duxbury, and grandfather of Phillip, Carla, Natalie, Lauren, Matt, Mark and Julia.

A graduate of Boston Latin School and Babson College, Mr. Roveto worked for his family's neckwear business, expanding its sales territories out of New England and across the nation. He was a caring son, husband, father and grandfather who later in life spent much of his time caring for his wife, and then looking after his grandchildren.

He is remembered for having a great sense of humor and a wonderful outlook on life. Donations in Ken's memory may be made to the Alzheimer's Association at alz.org/donate. To offer condolences please visit shepherdfuneralhome.com Shepherd Funeral Home, Kingston.